

Basel WM upsizes Zurich office as it grows team 'substantially'

By Ashley Lowe / 30 Oct, 2018

Tareno, a wealth management firm headquartered in Basel, has moved to a larger Zurich office to accommodate a growing team.

The new Zurich office, which now accommodates eight relationship managers, is located on Claridenstrasse, a stone's throw away from the firm's previous spot on Talstrasse.

Tareno CEO Josef Bollag told Citywire Switzerland that the move came as a result of recent hires. This year, Tareno has hired two more relationship managers.

He also noted that the firm is looking to increase its team in Zurich 'substantially' over the next few years.
